Quite a delegation of Richmond ladies will leave next week to attend the general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, meeting in Charleston, S. C., November 11th.

The one thing missing the pleasure of the Dames' visit to Westover last Wednesday was the fog, which prevented the boat from leaving Richmond on time. Consequently the arrival at Westover was late, and visitors had not the leisure to enjoy seeing the grand old mansion and house as they would have desired. Mrs. Ramsey's gracious hospitality, as

LAYTON GOES TO THE U. S. COURTS

Charged With Postoffice Robbery, But Makes Denial. Police Court.

The only case of interest on the criminal docket in the Police Court yesterday was the hearing in the case of Ernest Layton, alleged to be one of the gang of postoffice and bank robbers operating throughout the country.

The specific charge against him was that of complicity in the robbery of the postoffice at Columbia, Va., some time ago.

Two others have been turned over to the United States authorities on this charge, Fred Davis and Jim Madden. Layton is from Clifton Forge, and is alleged by the officers to have been mixed up with the big gang, several years. It may transpire that he had a hand in the robbery of the Williamsburg Bank several years ago, for the officers are convinced that he is one of the gang headed by Lupeka Joe, California Shorty and Frisco Slim, whose escapades are well known in this vicinity, as well as other parts of the country.

The man Layton was arrested by Sergeant Bailey and Officer Wyatt. He denies having had anything to do with the robbery, but on general suspicion he was turned over to the United States authorities, and sent to jail to await a hearing by the local commissioner.

Other cases were trivial. Several drunks and colored women of questionable habits were fined and sent to jail, and a long civil docket was disposed of.

ALLEGED BRASS THIEVES.

Four Men at First Station as Suspicious Characters.

Special Officer W. H. Ralston arrested four men yesterday morning as suspicious characters. The impression is that they have been taking iron and brass from the Triggs shipyard.

In their possession was found a bag containing a large quantity of lead and brass.

The men gave the names of Hugh Turner, Luther Godsey, James Parks and Luther Barnes, and say they are from Petersburg.

They deny having stolen the stuff, and say they brought it here from Petersburg.

A quantity of brass has been stolen from the Triggs yards lately.

PLACE CLOSED UP.

Captain Shinberger Has an Interview With Molly White.

Captain Shinberger had an interview with Molly White yesterday. The result was that the woman began to pack up her goods preparatory to sending them away, and she said that she would leave the city herself as soon as the case against her was disposed of in the Hastings Court. The place is now closed.

Rev. L. B. Betty to Leave.

Rev. L. B. Betty will preach at Clay Street Methodist Church Sunday, both morning and evening, taking for his theme subjects appropriate to a closing pastorate.

This is Mr. Betty's fourth and last year in this charge, and as the annual conference will convene in Charlottesville next Wednesday, this Sabbath will close his pastoral care here.

During his stay in this city, Mr. Betty has made many warm personal friends among all denominations, and no doubt there will be a large congregation to bid him farewell on Sunday.

BOARD OF STATE CANVASSERS TO MEET

The Board of State Canvassers will meet here on November 23d to canvass the returns of the recent election and to issue certificates to the members of the Legislature. The board is composed of Governor Manning, Attorney-General Anderson, Secretary of the Commonwealth D. O. Eggleston, Treasurer Harman and Auditor Marye.

So far returns have come in from fifty-nine of the counties and cities of the State. It is not known here that there will be any contests.

Mr. J. G. Hanks is clerk of the Board.

Commission Did Not Meet.

Owing to the failure of members of the legislative Joint Committee on Oyster Legislation to arrive yesterday, the meeting was deferred until today, or possibly until Monday. Only Senator Bryant and Delegate Cardwell and Clerk John J. Burke were in the city yesterday. Delegate E. C. Jordan and Senator A. D. Watkins are expected to-day, but Mr. Matthews, the other member of the House, may not arrive until Monday.

Married in Washington.

Mr. Herbert Newberry and Miss Myrtle Knight surprised their friends by taking a trip to Washington and being married. Mr. Newberry and Miss Knight left the city Wednesday morning and were married on their arrival in the capital city. Both are well known young people of Fairmount, but none of their friends or relatives knew that they were contemplating matrimony, as they are both very young, the groom being only nineteen, while the bride is a school-girl of fifteen summers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. George Knight, and Mr. Newberry is the oldest son of Mrs. Nettie Newberry.

Asks for a Mandamus.

An application was made yesterday to the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia by Treasurer Alfonso A. Patrick, of Elizabeth City county, for a writ of peremptory mandamus to compel former treasurer, Jesse Jones, to deliver to his successor all moneys and papers in his hands. The petition will be considered and acted on by the court without delay, the regular term beginning next Tuesday. This will probably be one of the first cases taken up. Messrs. B. Gordon Cumming and F. W. Collier are attorneys for Mr. Patrick.

About Ben Adhem.

About Ben Adhem Lodge, I. O. O. F., held a very interesting meeting Thursday night at its hall in the Smithfield building.

That Odd-Fellowship is alive in Richmond, and particularly so in that lodge, was evidenced.

Among the gathering of about one hundred, there were many distinguished Odd-Fellows, T. Wiley Davis, grand secretary of Virginia, and Past Grand Master

Terney, of Richmond, and others from different States were in attendance.

The lodge gave the initiatory degree to ten candidates in full costume by the degree team of the lodge, under the direction of Past Grand B. L. Smith, of Maine. After the business of the evening the lodge adjourned to its dining room, where its regular monthly supper was served, amid a spicy talk on Odd-Fellowship by Brothers Davis, Terney, Clarke and others.

MR. BRAUER GETS MR. H. M. SMITH

Will be Known To-day Whether a Contest is to be Made.

There is practically no change in the Henrico political situation. Absolutely no developments came yesterday to alter the aspect of things in any way.

Mr. Brauer has engaged Mr. H. M. Smith, Jr., to assist City Attorney Poliard. Whether or not they will make a contest will be known positively to-day, when the Board of Canvassers will meet again at the courthouse.

"We are still studying the situation, but have reached no conclusion," said Mr. Poliard last night.

A number of Mr. Brauer's friends are strongly urging him to abandon the fight.

The grand jury meets Monday. Whether or not it will go into the election matter is still in doubt. The chances in favor of an investigation, however, are very strong.

United States Circuit Court.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals will not hear argument today, but will hold a conference session. Judge

H. C. McDowell is expected here Monday. The court will probably be in session about three weeks.

The court yesterday granted the petition for commission to take further testimony in case No. 515—Steamship "Charlotte," appellant, vs. Robins, administrator, et al., appellees, from the District Court at Richmond; "The Gastonia Cotton Manufacturing Company, plaintiff in error, vs. W.
